

Lawrence Laurain Scholarship

The Detroit Professional Chapter's Lawrence A. Laurain Scholarship is awarded each year to a student in a college in Southeast Michigan with a demonstrated interest in journalism.

The scholarship, now $2,500, honors the memory of the late Larry Laurain, who served as president of the Detroit chapter in 1985, shortly before his death. His journalism career spanned 17 years, including work with The Royal Oak Daily Tribune, The Macomb Daily, United Press International, and as city editor of The Oakland Press.
